UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

AMANDA HILL, and GAYLE HYDE;
individually and on behalf of all others
similarly situated,

Plaintiffs,

v.

QUICKEN LOANS INC.,

Defendant.

Case No. 5:19-cv-00163-FMO-SP

DECLARATION OF CARRIE TUCKER IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFF'S RESPONSE IN OPPOSITION TO DEFENDANT
QUICKEN LOAN INC.'S MOTION TO COMPEL ARBITRATION

I, Carrie Tucker, declare under penalty of perjury, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, based on my own personal knowledge, that the following statements are true:

1. I am over 18 years of age and am a resident of Mesa, Arizona, and I submit this declaration in support of plaintiff Amanda Hill's response in opposition to Quicken Loans Inc.'s motion to compel arbitration of her claims.

2. In or about 2018, I recall visiting a webpage located at the website LowerMyBills.com, which I understand is presently owned and/or operated by LMB Mortgage Services, Inc. ("LMB"), a subsidiary of Rock Holdings Inc., the parent company of Quicken Loans, Inc. During that visit, I may have selected information from several initial drop down menus related to "Loan Type," "Property Use," "Home Description," or "Your ZIP Code," and may have inputted certain information in fields related to my then-existing mortgage, such as "Purchase Year," "Estimated Home Value," and "Interest Rate." Although I may have partially filled in some of the non-personal intake information on the webpage, I did not complete all of the intake fields, and in particular I am certain that I did not input any of my personal contact information, did not click any "Click to See Your Free Results" button or other buttons on any such website, and did not ever receive notice of or agree to any purported terms of service available related to any such website.

3. Nevertheless, thereafter, Quicken and other companies began sending SMS text messages to my cellular telephone number without my consent. This included at least one text message sent by Quicken to my number in November 2018 that which advertised subprime mortgage relief services.

4. Again, at no point have I ever inputted my telephone number or any of my personal contact information into the LowerMyBills.com website or any other website associated with Quicken, LMB, or any related companies. And I certainly never pressed any button to submit the information that I did input into any form on any LowerMyBills.com webpage.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed this 9 day of May, 2019 at 4pm.
